Is this your brother

Is this your brother
Walking toward you with clenched fist
All a rage and throwing stones
Is this your brother
Battling soldiers in the streets
All a rage and throwing stones
Is this your brother
Saying that he hates you so
Saying that you all must go
Yes it is
Yes it is
Yes it is
Don't forget this
This is your brother
Deep down he doesn't despise you
Deep down you love him just the same
It's just somehow we've all been trained
To hate
For someone else's sake
So someone else can take
And take
Is this your brother
yes
