It is filled with things

A life
Any life
It is filled with things
All could be
Magical
All could be
Mundane
Not one moment ever the same
As another
This life
I live
Is filled with things
Ripples
There are ripples
All perfect
All ok
And still you will hear me say
I'm not right
Watch me fight
Against
A Time
A face
A search for meaning this place
And all i know
Is that this life
My life
A life
Is filled with things
