It may sound weird

It may sound weird
What i'm going to say
And it's only what i think
I think today
And perhaps tomorrow
I'll different see
I different picture
Of how to be
But for right now
This is my truth
Please don't think me
So uncouth
I'm just made up
Of skin and bones
And so are you
So don't cast stones
But i digress
Avoidance is
My calling now
My only biz
And so i tell you
It may sound weird
But i really like
My winter beard
