It's not my dog

Remember that scene with inspector cloiseau
What was the name of that movie or show
Does your dog bite was the line of most fame
It is not my dog and it certainly ain't tame

It's not my dog has become a phrase i use
When someone is begging me to disabuse
They may wonder why their narrative is shot
They may puzzle is to why they've gotten caught

You see all the shit we think we believe
Is just another way ourselves to deceive
I thought you said your dog didn't bite
It's not my dog, your reality's a fright

That's about all i have to say this time
I'm just searching for another vapid rhyme
It's not my dog, i hope you have a pleasant day
Thanks for listening, now i'll be on my way
