It's time, it's time

Its time it's time
No regrets and no bad feelings
Its time its time
No mischief or back room dealings
Its done tis done
Time to move on to other things
Its time tis time
Ready to pack up and spread my wings

Its time its time
I can feel my breath returning
Its time its time
Theres nothing all that concerning
Complete complete
I've finished what i had to do
Its time its time
The days are numbered far too few

Its time its time
Ready for a new beginning
Its time its time
New tunes i should soon be singing
Love to all and now goodnight
Point my face into the sun
Its time its time
I am ready, i am done

Does that make me feel happy, Ya
Does that make me feel a bit confused
It may sound rather sappy, ya
But in the end, i'm so very amused
For it's definitely time
