

429-1000
The kitchen sink

They say when you've got nothing left
At least you have the kitchen sink
At song number 429
I feel like i'm running out of things to think
I feel as though i have little more to say
What can transpire in but a day
Don't blink
It may be time
For the kitchen sink
I'll keep tryin'
But i'd be lyin'
If i didn't say
With a wink
I've thrown everything at this project
But the damned kitchen sink
