A knowing wink

Sometimes a knowing wink is all we really need
Sometimes just a smile or a hand on my shoulder
Of course if you want i'd be willing to offer more
A kiss on the cheek or perhaps something even bolder

But that knowing wink
That little smile
Can hold me over
For a while
Leave me feeling
Like i'm not alone
That someone cares
Even when i'm alone

A knowing wink could mean another thing
Was that you laughing as i readied to sing
Was that you smiling when down i fell
I guess we all have stories to tell

When you know me
When you show me
You love me
I know
I know
