Lean in, listen on

Fear is just one spirit guide
But listen on
Can i confide
Fear is not
To be feared
Perhaps this sounds
I little weird
But lean in Lean in and listen on Sometimes i am afraid
When into my heart i choose to wade
But never try me to dissuade
This graceful walk
And deeper still Until
I am blown wide open
Open wide
So listen on
Can i confide
Afraid sometimes
And fearless too
I choose a life
That so few, So few do
So lean in
And listen on Lean in
And here me say
That my heart is with
You today
And falling thus
I carry on
And falling thus
With you at dawn
My love
lean in, Listen on Hear my heart
Fearless
Can you hear it beating
