Looking at things

I am looking at things
Differently these days

I wouldn't say i'm joyful
But i feel less despair
I'm not easily riled
Though i don't live w/out a care
My body is growing weary
It kind of makes me smile
I'm sagging and i'm rounding
I have no sense of style

I'm looking at things
Differently i think

I wouldn't say i'm carefree
I still worry a lot
But existential angst
Is something i haven't got
My friends are growing older too
Some of them are ill
I'm single and i'm satisfied
Of dating had my fill

I'm looking at things
And at least i'm looking still
