Making a difference

I don't wanna make a difference
Anymore for anyone
I know i know
I mostly made a difference for me
But hear me decree
I don't want to make a difference
Anymore in any way
I honestly just want to go out and play
Today
Travel the world with my guitar
And share my travels near and far
With no one
For no reason
Other than for me
To be free
No facebook posts
No ego boasts
No attention seeking
No look at me shrieking
No teaching
No preaching
Just leaving
And waving my way
Out of the USA
For no other reason
Than just to see
To eat
To play
No great mission
No great vision
No more thinking that somehow
I am
Making a difference
done
