

MAKING FACES

i'm making faces, inside my brain (A7) i'm rolling my eyes because you're so inane (D7) i'm pretending to listen, but i don't care i'm making faces, behind my stare i'm making faces, that you can't see i'm hoping and praying, you'll leave me be i'm feigning a smile, and i'm looking concerned i couldn't care less, haven't you learned i'm making faces, directed at you you think your ideas are important and new i'm sticking my tongue out, i wish you'd leave it's time you grant me a brief reprieve if you could hear (Em, B7) what i am thinking if you keep talking i may start drinking when goodbyes come i gasp for air

so long my friend
take good care
