Male model types

Male model types
Ruin it for the rest of us
Attention mongers
Destroy it for the best of us
Abs of steel
And my belly bulging
Eating kale
While ice cream i'm indulging

Male model types
Perfect hair and piercing eyes
Me hunched over
Aching back and sagging thighs
I feel quite young
Yet reflections do not lie
At age 53
Cannot gravity defy

Male model types
I wish they didn't exist
Attention please
I think you get the jist
Women swoon
I disdain the hype
And yet i wish
I was a male model type

If i had one wish that a genie might bestow
A wish that allowed me to tell male models where to go
I would turn them all into drooling little trolls
Send them off to live in their little hobbit holes
I would make them smelly, always gassy and quite gross
Inarticulate and yet absurdly verbose
Imprison all the handsome ones, make them wear those stripes
I simply hate those gorgeous male model types
