Man in the mirror

Who's that singing about the man in the mirror
I've gotta find out
Sounds like tom petty and the outlaws
Maybe some lou reed, no doubt
And is that stella mozgawa on the drums
I think I'm addicted to this tune
Who's that singing about the man in the mirror
Could it be the man in the moon

who's that singing about just wanting to be a man
A man who has fun
Is he a star on the rise, playing at the hollywood bowl
Or just another rocker on the run
Is that neil young i see before me Hey hey my my
i can listen to this song one more time
If i just try

How does such music arise
How does such music rip my soul to shreds
Who is this man singing about the man in the mirror
He's in my head
He's in my head
