Many delightful many

Many delightful hippies, dancing to the dead
Visions of a terrapin weaving through their heads
If you saw them you might think they'd given up their meds
Many delightful many

Many delightful republicans, voting for the trump
If you mention a pelosi he might turn into a grump happily they are always willing to argue on the stump
Many delightful many

Many delightful soccer fans, singing out their tune
Listen to them bellow, listen to them croon
Oops the opponent scored a goal, i guess they sand too soon
Many delightful many

Many delightful law students prepping for the exam
They never learn about the fact that law school is a sham
As long as they make their 6 figures they may not give a damn
Many delightful many

All of these folks, and oh so many more
Are really quite delightful, i'm not keeping score
I'm friends with each and every one, some i quite adore
