Many thanks and warm regards again

Many thanks and warm regards
yet again
Don't you know we've met on the field of battle
As men
As men do
But so very few
See this time as precious
And sacred
No rage
No disdain
It seems so plain
We don't fight out of hate
We debate
We create
So
Many thanks and warm regards again
You make me a better man
Few others can
Few others can
