Me on the bridge

Me on the bridge
It's not what you think
Too chicken to jump
Just pass me a drink
Even when things
Feel out of control
I'll find escape
From this bottomless hole

Me on the bridge
Not even a chance
I always find meaning
A cause to advance
Even when darkness
Surrounds like a wraith
Everything passes
In that i have faith

Me on the bridge
There's nothing to see
I'm simply a traveler
Not looking to flee
Even when sadness
Knocks loud at my door
I'm still a survivor
I have been before

I know that many see the bridge as their way out
And suffering for you may be quite real i have no doubt
Just remember that the clouds only hides the sun
And you may find that lightness even on the run
