Missing

What a powerful thing
Missing
What a magical moment
Seeing, laughing
Those you may not have even known that you missed
Lost in the confusion of so many pasts
A lifetime of pasts
And then
Hello!
And maybe We find
A new way to say hello
And maybe it begins with
I've missed seeing you
Hearing your smile
It's been a while
And now that we're together again
I can say
I have missed you
And then
There's another kind of missing
The mark
The point
The message
But you and I
We get each other
I really think we get each other
And
I miss you
I have missed you
Welcome open heart
Welcome open arms
