Moral inversion

A moral inversion
Is there really such a thing
Aren't morals relative
Does that truth sting
A moral inversion
May be quaint and all
But every government becomes
Corrupt before they fall
A Moral inversion
The dilemma of our time
Some say you're courageous
Others you did a crime
A moral inversion
It's different through each lens
Even the worst offender
May have no need for amends
