Music to my ears

It's a funny thing to say
And yet i say it anyway
For my ears are just another pathway
To my heart and to my soul
I guess i need my ears to know the feel of rock and roll
Or maybe not
What if that rhythms all i've got
No ears to hear the sweet sweet tune
Harmony a mystery
Would rock and roll disappear for me
I shudder to consider such
For music brings me close to god
I understand i don't know much
But watch me sway and watch me nod
As lowell george croons about a lamb
Or kd lang tells me i am
Tony rice hits notes so sweet
And see me dance to little feat
And on and on
And it's never about my ears never
