

86-1000
Names of the victims

In the first scene of the shawshank
Andy asked what's his name
Not to seek redemption
Not to assign blame
Not to look for ways he might
Contact his next of kin
When we name the victim
We can't be forgotten

Myriad memorials
Dot the capitol
A variety of monuments
Our cities they are full
But the most important markers are on the side of the road
Names on little crosses
Eternity bestowed

No one lives forever
Within a century
Everyone adult now alive
Will be a memory
But look at all the headstones
The name is carved in stone
For if we are remembered
Well never walk alone
