

102-1000
Nearly every day

I ponder my mortality
Nearly every day
A little chest pain in the night
Twitching legs they cause a fright
Hoping that your dog won't bite
Won't bite

I shake my head and wonder
Nearly every day
Why we listen to men like Trump
Lying from his golden stump
I'd rather elect forest gump
Forest gump

I regret my nature
Nearly every day
Destined still to be alone
A king upon his royal throne
Never true love to be shown
To be shown

Nearly every day
That's a lot
Nearly every day
Tis what i got
Nearly every day
I'll press on
Nearly every day
Soon be gone
