

507-1000
I'll never know

Do you love me
I'll never know
Before she would say
She chose to go
I may obsess
I may wring my hands
But she needn't tarry
To my demands

Do you hate me
Please don't reveal
Despite how awful
you may feel
Keep it a secret
Delusion reign
I don't want to know
About your disdain

Do you see me
From the inside out
Could you say
Without a doubt
That tender moments
My love did show
I guess in the end
I'll never know
