

97-1000
No need to shout

No need to shout
I get the jist
Is here something i should know
Something i have missed
I guess you're disappointed
That on our date we kissed
It wasn't my intention
To leave you feeling dissed

No need to shout
You attention seeking fraud
Falsely you convey beliefs
About your righteous god
Really what you want
Is for every action us to laud
Your self-esteem existing
Only when the people nod

No need to shout
The ref won't change the call
I know you go to anger
So that you will not ball
Your lack of self-awareness shows you have a lot of gaul
When you clamour for a foul
Every time your players fall

Shup your trap
We don't care
Reticence
You we dare
No one's listening
To his cries
No tears shed
when he dies
