

NO ONE CAN BE THAT HAPPY

the ones who look up at the heavens (E, A) as if blessed (B)
the ones who say they're never ever stressed
and the ones who tell me that life is oh so grand
these are the ones i simply cannot stand the ones who say that they love me when we're meeting at AA the ones who spend all their hours with their children at play and the ones who try to convince me that life is a gift these are the ones i'd like to set adrift

no one can be that happy (F#m) why can't they just admit (B) sometimes life is really dark even just a bit

the ones who tell me that heaven will be so sweet
the ones who try to stay slim and petite
and the ones who say that life is oh so grand
these are the ones i simply CANNOT STAND
