Nu

Nu

Nothing really

What would you like to hear

That i have gotten rid all of my fear

That i have turned over some new leaf

That i never feel even a bit of grief

Or remorse

Or regret

Or better yet

That i am now the man you desire

Who always stands with his feet in the fire

A warrior

An agent for change

A creator

Your man

Constructed in your image

A projection

Nothing really

How's that for true
