Once is enough

I married a woman
Delightful and kind
She worried about money
But i didn't mind
Being her husband
Wasn't too tough
But nonetheless
Once is enough

I went to the islands
I ordered a dish
A plateful of food
A cuisine of raw fish
It tasted ok
Though i doused it in stuff
But truth be known
Once is enough

I was talking to someone
A republican man
He said he approved
Of Donald Trump's plan
I called him an a-hole
He left in a huff
I'm trying to be open
But once is enough

Once is enough, why must i have more
I have no desire to even the score
And i know myself well, deep down to my core
And once is enough enough enough
