One perfect day

Rose colored glasses
Color my memories
And so i feel as though i have had
So many perfect days
Like the day lori and i
Spent at high school baseball games
Or the day linda and Spent in bed choosing names
Or the day that my son
Giggled at the clowns
Or the day my daughter and i
Walk about the town
without even one care
Not one
But so may
Perfect days
And then
When the rain falls
And the sky is dark
All is lost
All is lost
And every perfect moment
Evaporates
I'm not sure why
So i will try
To believe in
One perfect day
It can just be
So hard to find
