One song can bring me back

When my heart is slowly closing, when i'm glaring on in hate
When i feel as though the endless traffic keeps me waiting, waiting
When i just want to scream out all of the darkness i'm creating
One song can bring me back
One song can bring those tears back to my eyes
Once song can bring me back
Softening my heart even when i cannot cry
Sometimes i cannot cry
Grace, fully
Brings me back
There was sorrow
There was love
One song can bring me back
I guess it never ends
