Out on the beach

Out on the beach
Just before the dawn
Waves barely audible
Nothin goin on
Air thick and salty
Summer on the wane
Packin soon and headin home
On the midnight train
Out on the beach
I can walk for miles
Passing lovers hand in hand
Exchanging summer smiles
Seagulls circle vying
For that sudden gust
Ashes on the shoreline
Ashes in the dust
Out on the beach
I can sense the end
Is it on the rocky jetty
Just around the bend
Is that where you'll find me
Floating beyond reach
Ne'er to ride the train again
Forever on the beach
