Pencil that in

You don't have to ask, provide a reason why
Slip me a private note on the sly
Calculate all the ways you'll I might say goodbye

Just pencil that in
I'll be there
On your doorstep
Have no fear
By your side
Through thick and thin
So don't worry
Just pencil that in

You don't have to fret that i will not be there
Feel like you need to pretend or too much share
I hope you know deep down that you shouldn't have to care

You needn't consider all the ways i might bail
I know you're used to guys who have all set sail
But i will be by your side without fail

Unless of course you tell me to hit the road
Then maybe, just maybe
