People in town

People in town
Know me well
Or maybe that's what
Myself i tell
And so i hide
For fear they'll laugh
At all my flaws
At all my gaffs
In the shadows
I tend to lurk
I know they think
I'm such a jerk
But truth is
I can't stand the frown
I sense from all
The people in town
A story of
My own making
A story that
They can't be faking
But i know i know
I'm such a clown
For obsessing about
The people in town
