People live here

Spent the weekend in LA, hanging with the girl
Played some tunes and ate some bun, the tour was quite a whirl
Walked along the avenue, tried not to shed a tear
Thousands sleeping on the sidewalk, people do live here

Cadillacs and beamers, they're rodeo bound
$50,000 watches, opulence confound
Take a left turn as you leave, the piss it stinks like beer
Down the alley there's a family, people do live here

Tourists on their busses, behind the tinted glass
Never tip the driver, behavior that is crass
Now we're in the project, the bus will pass don't fear
All these burned out buildings, yes people do live here

Close your eyes
It's not your fault
Poverty
You cannot halt
Ever forward
Good career
Just ignore
Who lives here
