People's opinions

Peoples opinions mean a lot to me
Perhaps too much
Is that a crutch
Am i defined by peoples opinions of me
And what if they are not in line
With my rhyme
Does that keep me from being free peoples opinions are no less right

And no less wrong
Than every word in this song
Am i able to shrug them off
Like a month old cough
And what if they are not in line
With my rhyme
Does that keep me alone tonight

Peoples opinions are just like mine
Some make sense and some so tryin
Some are based in truth so clear
Some are drenched in illusions fear
Many come from places where
A thought knows not the honest air
And all are just words floating free
Perhaps demanding oh just be
