Practical things

Practical things, what are those
Stuff i need i suppose
Plan for the future everyone said
All ducks aligned, so when you're dead
You'll still have the things you need
Save for blood, you cannot bleed
It's great that you had no bling
You focused on the practical things

Practical things should be your motto
Never drink, don't get blotto
And for the love of god do not dance
Stare ahead, not askance
Hide your money under your bed
All duck aligned so when you're dead
People will your praises sing
He only pursued practical things

And love, what a waste of time
To the practical a fateful crime
Spending hard earned money thus
On a woman, what a silly fuss
Spurn emotions stay in line
Only at mcdonald's dine
For Fancy flowers and a ring
None of those are practical things

Practical things, ok my turn
Passions whimsy i will not shun
I will spend my hard earned cash
On strangers at a champagne bash
I will eat the finest steak
Rent a chalet on a lake
And when the reaper finally rings
I'll smile because i'll know that i said to hell with....
Practical things
