Pretend to ignore

You can Pretend to ignore
But attention should be paid
Decisions now are heavy
All options should be weighed
You may leave if you want
Or Regrets if you have stayed
If you have stayed

You can pretend to ignore
But don't pretend to see
I'd rather you were distant
I'd rather i was free
But if you pretend to look into my eyes
My love i may decree
I may decree

You can pretend to ignore
But still shoot me a glance
I'm so easy to please
A wink would make me dance
I know you think i'm beneath you
That i don't have a chance
Have a chance

You can pretend to ignore
But i think you love me so
I want divulge
I'll still let you go
But just beware
Your fondness i will always know
Always know
