when your eyes meet mine smile that dazzling smile watch my heart shine

pretty girl, think that I am worth your gaze
That we could be together
So many happy days

please don't mind that i'm a bit decrepit now i can still make you laugh and swoon ok maybe i should stick to gals my age but they don't make me howl at the moon pretty girl, want to hold onto my hand

together at the alter
someday stand

pretty girl, please don't judge by what you see i too once was young though now am 53

pretty girl, know
that even though we're old all men still desire respite from the cold

pretty girl, pass
walk on by without a glance find a youthful lover
one who wants to dance

pretty girl, yes
we know it's just a dream go and live your life
be someone else's queen
