

670-1000
Ricochet

This is how it goes
You plan and plan, control's your game
You think everything ends the same
Way, and then
Ricochet
You're off on a mystical journey unknown
You're only a man, your cover's blown
And into the cauldron you are thrown
Ricochet

This is how it works
You think you understand it all
Holding tight you think you cannot fall
Down, and then
Ricochet
You're bouncing into the stratosphere
One minute there, the next you're here
No reason the abyss to fear
Ricochet

This is how it ends
You believe that karma keeps you safe
When warnings issued in anger chafe
But, watch out
Ricochet
The life you live is not really yours
Deflected through so many doors
And winding up on distant shores
Ricochet
