Slow slower slow

Slow slower slow
This then is the revolution
There's nowhere to go
Call it reclaiming evolution
Look at your heart
Not at how the world reviews you
It's time for a new start
This revolution's here to choose you
We are ill so very ill
Of gadgets and gizmos We have our fill
And even when we're sitting still We're racing
We're chasing
Slow is what we should be embracing
Quiet is the road to health
Reject the market's call to wealth
Slow slower slow
Emerge into the vast unknown
Go with your lover or alone
Gaze loving at a single stone
And slow slower slow
There truly is Nowhere to go
In silent repose
contentment grows
Our system knows
slow slower slow
Now
