Smarter than you think

Hey you
You know
You are smarter than you think
You decided not to drink
When sadness rose, you did not shrink
Or fall away
You survived the day
So hey you
You know
You are smarter than you think
You listen to your body wise
When the time did come you did surmise
And refused to listen to the lies
Told by some
Who said
Work yourself until you're dead
It's the only way to stay well fed
But you knew
Because
You are smarter than you think
You don't give credit when it's due
And i'm talking right to you
Sage
Sage
And
You are smarter than you think
