So just tell me

I am not a mind reader
No one is, no one is
Please don't make me guess
I need info i confess
And i refuse to take this test
So just tell me

Tell me what you want what you need and desire
Tell me if you want me to walk on coals into the fire
Tell me if i'm the last person on this blessed earth
With Whom you'd wanna share the child after giving birth

Tell me why you decided to sleep out on the couch
I'm a big boy and can take it even when i say ouch
Tell me if you've fallen deeply for another man
I may not seem all that strong but trust me i am

So just tell me
Let me know
It's all ok
It's just how it goes
Just let me know
I'll be fine
Even if
You find me crying
Just let me know
