

650-1000
Someone to cry with

I don't wanna talk
You don't wanna hear it
You're judging me again
Don't know why i fear it
No one understands
That's how it always is
And it'll always be
Like you, i'm just like me
And really
I just want someone to cry with

Someone who will listen
There's nothing here to solves
Someone who will hold my hand
There's nothing to resolves
No dilemma, i'm not stuck
No depression, holy fuck
I'm fine, i'm ok
There's nothing that i need to say
I just want someone to cry with

You sit across from me
But You can't hear me through your lens
You say i mean a lot to you
That you are happy we are friends
But there's much within the autumn air
That leaves my heart outside and bare
And so i cry, and i don't care
And there you sit and stare
And stare
And all i really want
Is someone to cry with me

To weep because i weep
Nothing to fix, nothing to cure
I don't need you to reassure me
Just cry with me

That's all
