Starting a war

Starting a war
Oh how much fun
Distract, deflect
Shield your eyes from the sun
March without questions
Go get your gun
All peaceful doing
Finally undone

Starting a war
A hateful endeavor
Millions will perish
And that's forever
And all of this time
Again we said never
Don craves a cap
This will be his feather

Starting a war
Of course we never learn
We say we're peace lovers
But it's power we yearn
And if there's a hell
In it we all will burn
For hate is the engine
And we all take out turn

Starting a war
Watch us drown in the muck
The wealthy sit back
As the poor ones are stuck
Fighting for nothing
I wish you all the best luck
For the war makers really
Don't give a fuck

About you
About me
About all of our babies
