Starting on a story

I'm starting on a story
Like i've done so many times before
I can tell that you're not listening
I know i'm quite the bore
But this tale is different
It's the stuff of real folklore
I'm starting on a story
On a story

I'm starting on a story
I pray you listen close
I'll try to be quick about it
Try not be be verbose
If i go on too too long
You may be comatose
I'm starting on a story
On a story

I'm starting on a story
This one will hold you rapped
I've got you boxed in to a corner
Can't you see that you are trapped
Just listen for an hour or two
I'll regale you til i'm tapped
I'm starting on a story
On a story

And now the story' over
Did you like it
Do you like me
Did you hear me
Can you see me
Shall i tell another
