Swimming in lakes

Swimming in lakes
Now there's a memory
Swinging from a tree
Falling, falling the the cool
Sometimes even after school
To the reservoir
In my favorite car
When i was young
We never used the brakes
And we went swimming in lakes

Swimming in lakes
Sand and stones between my toes
Hiding out so no one knows
And me drinking beer
And we have no fear
To the reservoir
And from the nettled shore
When i was brave
I had no lives to save
And for a moment's sake
I went swimming in lakes

Swimming in lakes
And whistling songs by little feat
Pounding out that crazy beat
And making love in a raft
In the rain some might say we're daft
To the reservoir
We never drove too far
When i was new
Living now is all it takes
And we could all be swimming in lakes
