Symbolic gestures

Symbolic gestures, what a waste
Obfuscation's bitter taste
Why not just make it real
Regardless of how uncomfortable you feel

Symbolic gestures, easy out
Gestures often foment doubt
Wond'ring we, what is meant
By A thumb not fully bent

Symbolic gestures, short and curt
Often insincere they hurt
Honest words we so fear
Gestures never truly clear

Symbolic gestures, some obscene others insincere and mean
Mistaken for a friendly wave
Perceptions molded whence we crave

Why not simply speak the words that represent your truth
Gestures turn us often into detectives on the sleuth
I know i know you're too scared to say just what you want
And so your hide behind the gestures, a coward's taunt
