That one's already taken

Let my inspiration flow, oh no
That one's already taken
Spoken for, that tale is done
Oh this is so much fun
But Oh no, that one's already taken

Do you love her madly, oh no
That one's already taken
Sung by jim, you know him
Spoken for, walking out that door
But Oh no, that one's already taken

She aches just like oh no
That one's already taken
Claimed, crooned by bob
To an adoring mob
Oh no, that one's already taken

So many songs
So little time
So many chords
So many rhymes
Oh no, oh no
That one's already taken
