The alternative

What's the alternative
Is there really choice
Where do go from here
In which direction do i steer
A ship that seems to want to veer
And so i ask
What's the alternative
Do you see another way
Do you see another day
Like this
Like these
Trying to stave off disease
Try the gods to appease
Something is amiss
And i wonder
What's the alternative
Can there be different course
Can good be the guiding force
Or are we consigned to suffer
And toil
From the truth to recoil
And again i ask
I plead
Is there a way out
Won't you hear me when i shout
And query
What's the alternative
It must exist
