

800-1000
The onlys

Who are the onlys
The only ones left
With ever distant memories
And time the only theft
Who are the onlys
They're the children all alone
Fighting to make sense
Of a world they can't condone
Who are the onlys
The ones who matter most
Those of us who've been here long
Throw shadows like a ghost
Upon the onlys future
Upon their fading hope
For we destroy the joy they seek
And leave them alone to cope
Who are the onlys
They're the kids inside the school
They shelter in a shattered place
The elders are so cruel
Who are the onlys
The ones we say we adore
And yet their pleas for sanity
Are the ones we most ignore
Who are the onlys
Just look back in your mind
The onlys once were you and me
Oh the damage time
Has done
We have done
We have done
