

33-1000
the right way

is there a right way to think is there a way not to sink if i believe as you tell me to will you come to my rescue keeping me from falling down saves not those who wear a frown tell me when it's time to pray save me from my judgement day is there a right way to be is there a path to be free filter through a lens of rose unquestioning in my repose happy no matter what the cost contentedly discounting loss pity for the non believer faithful posture a deceiver everyone seems to know

yet everyone seems to go their own way
perhaps the knowers
should think again
assume not for me
what's right for them
