The scenery will shift

The scenery will shift
It must it must
I am trying to stay true
To trust to trust
That i can figure all this out
That i can manage all the doubt
And fear
And that it's just a moment passing by my window
It's just a moment
And the scenery will shift
But
What happens when the money runs out
What happens when i can't put food on the table
I'm weary, so weary
Am i able
To say
Uncle
Will i be able to say
Uncle
For now
I hope
The scenery will shift
